Digital Print Solutions is Growing! DPS Launches New Sales and Support Locations in 2021!

Richfield, OH - April 27th, 2021 – Digital Print Solutions (DPS), with headquarters located in Richfield, Ohio, is excited to announce their expansion into four new markets in 2021. DPS is opening sales and support offices in the following locations:

Louisville/Lexington, KY
Indianapolis, IN
Orlando/Tampa, FL
Atlanta, GA

Digital Print Solutions is the leading dealer of Canon production equipment in the United States. They specialize in printing and finishing equipment and supplies for commercial printing and production environments.

DPS's vision is to create and execute a client-centered service and sales environment to uncover how to most efficiently and cost effectively provide their customers with the solutions they need. They currently support Cleveland, Columbus, Cincinnati, Dayton, and Toledo, OH along with Detroit/Ann Arbor, MI, Pittsburgh, PA, and Nashville, TN.

President & CEO Adam Silk stated, "We continually receive requests from commercial printers throughout the country to open in their cities so we can provide the breadth of products and services only DPS can provide. Expansion into these new cities allows us to meet the needs of hundreds more commercial printers and will add to our loyal customer base."
